

PRIVACY STATEMENT

FOR INTERSHARE AS

This privacy statement applies to Intershare AS. Here we explain what personal information we have collected and how we use these.

The General Manager is responsible for processing Intershare AS.

Questions regarding treatment of personal data or the exercise of rights such as access, correction or deletion is done by sending email to post@intershare.no or call the switchboard on number +47 380 90000.

Customer information

Intershare AS provides services to companies and in that connection, we store contact information for our contact persons at the customer. This information is used to contact the customer when needed and by sending out operating messages about the services provided. We store name, phone number and email address of these contacts. The basis for processing is GDPR article 6.1b Contract.

For operating customers, we also store information about the user account that is created on the operating solution. These contains name, email address and accesses. This is so that you can access the solution that is delivered according to the agreement. The basis for processing is GDPR article 6.1b Contract.

This information is not shared with other parties.

When a customer relationship ends, all personal information related to the customer will be deleted or anonymised within 12 months

Supplier information

We store contact information about our contact persons with our suppliers. This information is used to contact the supplier if necessary. We store name, telephone number and email address for these contacts. The basis for treatment is GDPR article 6.1f Justified interest.

This information is not shared with other parties.

When a supplier relationship ends, all personal information related to the supplier will be deleted or anonymised within 12 months.

Information about potential customers

In our sales processes, we store contact information on the people needed to complete the sales process. We only store public available information such as the name, telephone number and email address of these contacts. The basis for treatment is GDPR article 6.1f Eligible interest.

This information is not shared with other parties.

PRIVACY STATEMENT

FOR INTERSHARE AS

Epost

Intershare AS strives not to send personal data by email and does not want to receive personal data by email. If personal data is sent by email, it is as a result of contractual commitments. If you want to send us personal data and you do not have suitable methods for this, contact us for assistance in that.

All e - mails received and containing personal data are processed by moving the personal data to a suitable system for processing and the email will be deleted as soon as possible.

We do not store personal information in email. We do not send or forward personal information in email.

In emails sent to Intershare AS, we consider information such as name, telephone number and email address, that sender has in his email signature as public information and allows the individual employee to store this information in their mailing list or in a suitable system, if needed. The basis for treatment is GDPR article 6.1f Eligible interest.

Onlet og Wincar

Intershare's software products enable our customers to store personal information about their customers. It is our customers who decide which personal information is stored in the systems and is responsible for processing these. We therefore refer to them for all requests regarding privacy and exercise of rights such as access, correction and deletion of them.

Changes to this Privacy Statement

This privacy statement will be updated when our data collection or use of data changes, or in the event of clarifications in the regulations that entail a need for correction.

Last updated 03.11.2021